this Financial Branch has been obtained in that case. So I did not obtain in this case also; as perhaps it is not this Financial Branch which has to decide what endowments are to be accepted and what not

If this endowment were merely for the feeding of Brahmins e.g. if this endowment was for feeding some Brahmins on the birthday of any person it may perhaps be said that this object is not one contemplated by the rules when, as in this present case, this object is to provide food to the Brahmin devotees that visit a place then can be no question that it is charitable and deserves to be encouraged. The donor being a Brahmin is entitled to feeding to Brahmins

I am inclined to think that feeding persons (gratis) on any occasion, whether Brahmans or others, is charity, though not always charity of a wise sort.

Respected Sir,

In the above named village of Kollakunte Agraharam is the ancient temple of Sri Ranganatha Swami. Car festival is held on the full moon day of the month of Phalguna every year. With the consent of the residents of the place and by the grace of God I have, for the past 23 years, been contributing towards the expenses of the agama, of the Uthsavam on the Car Festival day and of the feeding of Brahmins on the day of Kalyana Uthsavam. At present I have set apart Rs.3000/- for the expenses of the Kayankaryams. With the intention of ensuring the continuity of the said KayanKaryams or Uthsavams, I have resolved to deposit the said sum of Rs.3000/- and more, if possible, with the Government of H.H.the Maharaja of Mysore under Notification dated 12th February 1908 ~~advised~~ as revised by Government Order No.Fl. 473-503 G.F. 15-09-2 dated 15th July 1909. I earnestly and humbly pray that the Government may be graciously pleased to pass the necessary orders and permit me to deposit Rs.3000/- at present and further sums to the extent of Rs.1000/-. The interest may be ordered to be paid to me during my life time and after my death to N.V. Narasima Iyengar, Advocate, Bangalore to be spent for the purposes above mentioned. I am an old man of 86 years of age. I pray that necessary orders may be passed as early
